

Randy Carrillo, CEO of Morgan Renee Live, To Speak at Billboard Latin Music Conference

Morgan Renee Live LLC has announced its participation in this year's Billboard Latin Music Conference as Regional Mexican Panel Sponsor, and is pleased to report that the company's CEO will be speaking at the event, which will be held from April 26 – 28, 2011 at the Eden Roc Renaissance in Miami Beach. Morgan Renee Live is based in Jupiter, Florida.

According to Morgan Renee Live CEO Randy Carrillo, the company's seasoned staff of professionals is able to keep a constant pulse on the industry and are always in the know when it comes to the stars of today and the up and coming talent of tomorrow. Carrillo said he always looks forward to the excitement generated by the Billboard Latin Music Conference and is especially pleased to be asked to join the event's impressive slate of guest speakers this year.

Recognizing the most popular Latin music acts on the charts, the Billboard Latin Music Awards features top solo performers & Latin groups vying for top honors across all genres of Latin Music, produced and broadcast by Telemundo. Combining entertainment and education to inspire and inform, the Billboard Latin Music Conference and Awards will feature Marketing Day, including first time Music Marketing Awards honoring the best campaigns, collaborations and creative visions from Latin music over the past year. This year's event will also feature newly enhanced and expanded radio programming including case studies, roundtables, panels, one-on-one networking and cocktail party with the masters of the airwaves; and the highly anticipated Billboard Bash featuring performances by Billboard Latin Music Award Finalists.
